Merry Christmas from the Panhorst Family!

We had a wonderful 2007, with the most exciting news being the arrival of Sarah Grace on August 8th. Jeni is returning to work from maternity leave in mid-December, which has given us ample time to adjust to life as a family of four. Juliana, now an energetic 3 1/2-year-old, started preschool this fall, and she's really enjoying the time learning with her new teachers and fellow students. Steve's IT consulting business continues to keep him busy, along with his even more important job as a stay-at-home Dad. We wish you a delightful Christmas season, and all the best in 2008!

Love,
Steve, Jeni, Juliana, & Sarah
